

IMS

OHSAS POLICY STATEMENT

OHSAS 02

Brennan Group is fully committed to undertake its business in such a way as to minimise the risk of injury or ill health to people, damage to property or the environment. Brennan Group has a moral and legal obligation to safeguard, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare of their employees and anyone who may be affected by the actions of the Company, its employees, or as a result of Brennan Group activities. Brennan Group fully accepts their obligations and responsibilities, which will be achieved by:

- Meeting its responsibilities as an employer to do all that is reasonably practicable to prevent accidents, injuries and damage to health; including a commitment to continual improvement in OH & S management and performance.
- A commitment to at least comply with applicable legal requirements and with other requirements to which the organisation subscribes that relate to its OH&S hazards.
- Providing and maintaining safe working environments that minimise the risks to health, safety and welfare. Limiting adverse effects on and adjacent to the area in which those activities are carried out.
- Ensuring all employees play an active part in the health and safety of the Company by consulting with them and providing them with adequate information, instruction, training and supervision for them to understand their role within the Company.
- Setting standards that comply with the relevant statutory requirements relating to health, safety and welfare with regard to the effect on employees, contractors, visitors and the public.
- Safeguard employees and others from foreseeable hazards connected with work activities, processes and working systems.
- Ensuring that hazardous areas are kept secure from the public, employees or tenants, or contractors not required to enter them.
- Ensuring that when new substances, plant, machinery, equipment, processes or premises are introduced, adequate guidance, instruction, training and supervision are provided for safe methods of work to be developed.
- Ensuring that all plant and equipment is maintained in a safe condition and is subject to routine and statutory inspections and examinations.
- Ensuring that contractors undertaking work for the Company are informed of the relevant standards required and are monitored to ensure compliance without detracting from the contractors' legal responsibilities to comply with statutory requirements.

Employees are required to cooperate with the Company not only to ensure their personal safety, but also to ensure they are not prosecuted for breach of legislation or have disciplinary action taken against them by the Company for breach of Company rules. The Company will communicate the Health and Safety Policy to all employees, and it will be freely available to customers and the general public.

This policy, and objectives will be reviewed annually and updated as required to conform to current legislation.

This Policy, supported by Instructions, Procedures and Organisational Arrangements, is to be applied to all activities carried out by the Company. All Directors, Managers, Supervisors and Foremen will enforce this Policy. The Managing Director is personally responsible for the health and safety performance of the Company.

APPROVED

Signed
Managing Director

Reviewed 1st September 2010

This Documented Management System is the property of The Company and may not be copied, reproduced or released to any third party, without the written permission of the Managing Director.